COLD WEATHER GREETED THE SLUGGERS

Corbett Puts in a Busy Day at Training, While the Australian is Inclined to Take Things Easy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Martin Julian came to this city from Carson today. When seen he stated that Bob was in fair condition when Julian left Carson.

"By the morning papers I see, however, that he was suddenly taken ill. I hope that it will amount to nothing, as we are very anxious to have the mill go through according to program."

CARSON, Nev., Feb. 22.—Corbett and his friends do not like the cry of sickness from the Fitzsimmons camp. They are afraid that the Cornishman is getting ready to knock out the match or else is working for a postponement. The Californian will not submit to the latter proposition under any circumstances. He is timing his training so as to be ready for March 17. A week's delay might prove fatal, as Corbett appreciates that in that time he might go stale or train off an edge.

The thermometer at 8 o'clock this morning stood at 8 degrees below, the coldest weather known in Carson for several years. The sun came up bright and warm, however, and the mercury rose to 20 above at noon. The snow is melting rapidly today and prospects are good for continued bright weather.

Bob Fitzsimmons commenced work today with a four-hundred pound weight on the wrestling mat. He finished the morning's routine with bag punching for twenty-five minutes. He closed his work with a run over his rub down. Fitzsimmons sunned himself for an hour, declaring that he was in splendid condition. He then took a place for road work until the strip of ground a mile in length, now being cleared of snow, is in good shape. He is also waiting Julian's return from San Francisco, where he is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Jim Corbett carried out his routine work, putting in more than an hour at hand ball with his regular partner, Jim Woods. Woods until the latter was exhausted. Aside from a slightly flushed face, Jim showed no effects. He stated that he had posted his letter to the Californian, and soon to help out Woods, who has more than he can attend to in standing before Corbett. George Green is also expected here and will train at Corbett's camp. He has fought under the ring title of "Young Corbett."

Corbett increased his work today, while Fitzsimmons did very little. After light work with the bag and a few rounds with Hickey, the eyes in a great way to protect himself from the intense cold. He made a tour of the camp, followed by a curious crowd. After two hours' shopping he drove back to Carson, where he had a dinner at the hotel. He then took another turn at sparring and bag punching.

Refrigerators are at work on the pavilion at Cook's ranch, preparing a place with a view to arranging a hand ball court for the Australian. Teams are being selected for a strip of ground for running. The agents from the vicinity of Fitz's quarters are rough and probably will be had for some time to come, owing to the continuing thawing and freezing of snow, and a level piece of ground away from the road has been chosen for a track.

Shaw's Springs is still the popular place with the curists. The air was filled with the music of sleigh bells all day, as people drove out to see Corbett at work. He has numerous spectators whenever he works out, whether it be early in the morning or late in the afternoon. All who come are admitted to the big draughty handball court and stand about shivering and stamping their feet all the time. For Corbett's appearance, Jim did more work today than on any previous day since he settled at Shaw's garden.

Weekend said today: "I have received letters from all over the United States urging the management to allow women to witness the big fight. I have written to that effect, but I presume Stuart will call a meeting of those interested in a few days to decide the matter. Personally, I see no objection to the fight, but I believe the protection of the law, and order will be maintained. I see no reason why women may not attend an exhibition after wearing a foot ball game. Numerous orders for seats are arriving. No seats will be assigned until the show is over and the tickets are placed. The money received for tickets will be duly credited to the sender and the applicant be given preference over all subsequent orders."

Ground was broken today at the race track and lumber being dumped on the site. Carpenters will be at work on the grandstand. The force will be increased daily as the work progresses. Tonight it is clear and cold, with prospects good for continued bright weather.

FITZ'S FRIENDS ARE CONFIDENT. Claim That Their Man Will Win the Big Fight in a Walk.

CARSON, Feb. 22.—Martin Julian left for San Francisco on the western express last evening. He will be back Wednesday. When asked the purpose of the trip he said he was going to buy a stock of provisions and also make arrangements for the hire of Mechanics' pavilion for the night of March 19.

"On that date," he went on, "Robert Fitzsimmons, champion pugilist of the world, will appear before the public of San Francisco and give an exhibition after beating the head of Mr. Corbett."

"I am confident," he went on, "that Corbett will be a fair and square man and pinned me to the floor for three minutes. When you consider that I weigh 217 pounds and he weighs only 175, you can appreciate the excellence of the performance. Fitzsimmons is stronger and more clever than I have ever seen. I think I see how he can lose with Corbett. I think the fight will be all over inside of ten rounds. Fitzsimmons considers that Corbett is clever, but our man is by far the hardest hitter. He can afford to take two or three of Corbett's blows to land one of his own and every time he gets one in I want to thank him that it will take thirty pounds off of him. My reason for this statement is based partly on what I saw in Bob's fight with Maher. I think all fair-minded persons will agree with me when I say Maher is one of the hardest hitters in the ring today. When he smashed Bob twice each side, but the blow did not bother him at all."

"When Fitzsimmons landed on the Irishman the big fellow went down and our man little punch put him to sleep. Corbett's game will probably be to spar at long range, the same as fought Sullivan, but as soon as he begins to fight in long earnest Bob will keep him moving, and it will be only a matter of time before he is put out. Many people profess to believe that Fitzsimmons will be able to land on Jim. Why not? Mitchell landed on Corbett and made him bleed a while. If Mitchell could do this, how much better can our man, with his advantage in reach and everything else. Take my word for it, as soon as Fitzsimmons lands it will be all over but the shouting."

Upon learning that Julian and Fitzsimmons had to say about the outcome of the battle, Corbett said:

"Oh, why I am not making that kind of talk, why it is all right. It does not hurt anybody. I am surprised at Fitzsimmons running out in the race today. I don't think it is a very good thing for him to do, but I guess he knows best. About this kind talk from this side—you just wait till Brady gets here, and then there will be some fun. He can outtalk the whole lot

LEAGUE SCHEDULE IS NOW READY.

First Game of the Season to Be Played at Boston, April 19.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 22.—President Nick Young of the National League of Base Ball Clubs has finished the preparation of the schedule of the games to be played during the coming season and will submit it to the spring meeting, which begins in this city on Thursday next. There appears to be but little doubt that the schedule as arranged by the president will be adopted without material discussion and practically without change, as it has been prepared after a full consideration of the various clubs and careful consideration. President Young is very reticent concerning the schedule, but the following details concerning it have been learned:

The first league game will be in Boston, April 19, between Boston and Philadelphia, but this is merely a ceremonial "cherry day," a local holiday. The season proper will begin April 22, with Boston in Baltimore and Philadelphia in Philadelphia.

There will be no inter-sectional games until about the time the west comes east, and will stay until after Decoration day, May 31. Baltimore and Washington will, however, play west on Decoration day, Washington probably going to Pittsburgh and Baltimore to Cincinnati and Louisville in St. Louis. WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB SHOW. Entries Show a Decrease in Number of Exhibitors.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The twenty-first annual dog show of the Westminster Kennel club opened today and will continue until next Thursday at Madison Square garden. The mastiff classes are not so large as last year. St. Bernards are very much in demand, and the show is well represented. In the latter class, Major McKinley, prize winner for the last few years, has again shown his rival in Marcus Antonius, winner of the first prize in the open class last year. Duke of Kent, the heavy weight pointer who beat all comers in the dog show at Philadelphia, was defeated by Moulton Banner, who won in the first challenge prize in 1895 at Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis and Boston. There are 119 Boston entries, and 119 Boston entries.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—The Burlington route will not make any reduction in the rate to Carson on account of the prize fight. This stand was taken today after a conference between the Burlington and the Carson passenger agent, said this decision was arrived at because the officials of the Burlington concluded that a prize fight was not an event which would justify them in decreasing such a concession as a reduction in rates.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.—The Missouri Pacific railroad made somewhat of an innovation today by officially announcing its rate to the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, and incorporating both classes of fares. The fare for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight is $15; board, $10; total, $25. The fare for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight is $15; board, $10; total, $25.
